September Diversity Spotlight Recipient: Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference

In August, the Heartland Conference held their first Heartland Conference Women’s Leader Symposium in Indianapolis, IN.

Dr. Richanne C. Mankey and President Mark Emmert gave welcome remarks to kick off the Symposium.
Amy Wilson and Louise McCleary gave presentations on Title IX and Leadership.

President of Knox College, Dr. Teresa L. Amott gave the keynote address titled "Lead With & Without Authority."
A panel including Kelley Hartley Hutton, Marcie Taylor, & Holly Sheilley was conducted to speak on all topics involving athletic administration.

Some of the many participants at the first Heartland Conference Women’s Leader Symposium.